CHAIRMAN ISSUES APPEAL FOR RED CROSS ROLL CALL

Over One-Hundred Women To Make Thorough Canvass Of The City

ALL CITIZENS URGED TO JOIN

John D. Berryman, chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call for the Charleroi district, has issued the following appeal, and will announce tomorrow the appointment of over one hundred women of the borough to solicit membership renewals.

The fourth Red Cross Roll Call is under way; committees have been appointed; the city is laid out in districts and over one hundred of the foremost women of the borough will go in pairs and call at every home.

These committees have been selected with great care and it is entirely too important a matter to make changes; others can be added, substitutes can be supplied, but the Executive Committee expects you to lay aside every duty and give your time to the enrollment of our people in this splendid cause.

Roll Call Day will be Thursday.

Workers are urged to meet committees at the borough building and get instructions, where the offices will be open each night before the drive.

Read carefully the list of names, select your working partner and be assigned your district. If you have your working partner and have been assigned your district, you are expected to start promptly at one p. m., Thursday, November 18.

To those who have not been assigned they are requested to report at the borough building at 1:00 p. m. of the 18th, get instructions and their district.

We want a large enrollment; we want the head of every family; also the other members. One membership entitles them to the flag and one button, but we urge you to get all members of the family if possible. Each will then receive a button and an additional Red Cross to place on the window flag.

All the churches have endorsed the movement. The schools are starting an intensive campaign for the Red Cross. The factories, mills, and mines are posting notices urging their employes to welcome the workers and have their memberships ready. We want the workers to realize this is a work of tremendous importance and we want you to feel and to impress on our members that right here and now is the time to show where we all stand.

MAKES HUNTER PAY FOR FARMER'S TURKEY

A trespassing hunter shot a large turkey on the Bell farm, near Center church, in the vicinity of Hill's station, this county, recently and was in the act of carrying the bird away when discovered by a member of the family. He settled by paying $1 for the turkey, which had been purchased last spring at the same figure. This is one reason why farmers forbid hunting on their premises.

HUNTERS WARNED AS SEASON OPENS

Wild turkey hunters who take the field today have been warned by Seth E. Gordon, secretary of the Game Commission, to adhere strictly to the law relative to killing turkeys before sunrise or after sunset.

Mr. Gordon also calls attention to the fact that calling turkeys in any manner, shooting from a blind or at a bait, and the use of dogs are prohibited. He also calls attention to the limit of one wild turkey to each hunter and warns hunters not to shoot into a flock and take chances of killing more than one bird. He asks all hunters to prevent the killing of game illegally, and says: "Each hunter is a partner in one of the biggest enterprises of the state, with more than 300,000 stockholders."

MUSIC HATH CHARMS

The cold wind and snow flakes beat against the window; the few on the street hustle along, heads bent low, in order to gain shelter from the storm. Within, a different scene presents itself. In a comfortably heated room, the family is gathered around the piano and while the mother plays, the others sing or listen. Contentment and happiness reign.

During the cold winter nights that are yet ahead, nothing can be a source of more pleasure in your home than a piano or player piano. Unlike any other Christmas gift, a piano will give pleasure to the entire family. It is also a gift from which the pleasure is permanent.

For nearly 20 years we have studied the piano industry, and from long experience we know that we now have the most reliable pianos, and the best values, that were ever offered by one store. Thousands of enthusiastic owners are the best evidence of the satisfaction given by Schroeder Pianos and Schroeder Player Pianos.

If you will step in at our establishment any time this week, we will be pleased to have you look over our many splendid instruments and to tell you about our installment plan, whereby you can have the piano you choose placed in your home, any time before Christmas, at a very nominal original payment.

Elks' Bowling League Season Is Almost Half Completed

The schedule of the Elks' Bowling League is almost half completed, and the various teams are fighting with all their ability for top honors. From present indications this bowling league promises to be the most successful of any staged in Charleroi. The success of such a league depends largely on the individual members of the various teams, who can make or break the combination by the manner in which they attend and take part in the games. Some splendid bowling is being shown every evening, and this keeps the interest at a high pitch. Not only are the old time devotees of the game doing splendid work, but the new men in this particular line of sport, who started this year, are rapidly gaining the knack of bowling and are putting up some fine scores. The sport is gaining in interest so much that it is likely the number of teams in the league will have to be increased, and make it a 12-club league instead of 10 as at present.

The standing of the teams up to Monday, November 15, finds the "Wahoos" and "Packers" tied for first place, followed by the Hoop Poles and Misfits, which are tied for second place. The first half of the season will end December 10, after which it is the intention of the promoters of the league to have one big night of sport, which will include bowling, billiards, pool and pinochle games, date to be decided upon later.

After this event the bowling league will be reconstructed for the last half of the bowling season. Following is the standing of the teams up to the 15th:

Teams	W	L	Pct.
Wahoos	10	5	.667
Packers	10	5	.667
Hoop Poles	9	6	.600
Misfits	9	6	.600
Devil Dogs	8	7	.533
Trimmers	8	7	.533
Lunks	7	8	.464
Champs	6	9	.400
Cubs	5	10	.330

STEEL TIPPLE IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Fire practically destroyed the steel constructed tipple and more than 800 tons of coal at the Alicia plant of the Pittsurg Steel company, above Brownsville, early last Thursday evening.

The origin of the fire, which was discovered at 4:30, is thought to have been due to spontaneous combustion, and when discovered had made considerable headway. A call for aid was sent to the three Brownsville companies, which were soon on the ground, and with the aid of the plant's own volunteer company the fire was placed under control after three hours of steady fighting.

The fire means the laying off of about 260 employes of the mine, this number including 120 miners and 140 day men. The fire being in the tipple, more than 75 feet above ground, made the work of the firemen very difficult.

The loss will be more than $100,000 according to the latest estimate.

MAKE AN OIL STRIKE NEAR CANONSBURG

The Pitt-Texas Oil and Gas Company, composed of Monessen people, struck oil in their well on the Fife farm near Canonsburg on Tuesday. The oil was struck in the fifth sand, and at present is good for at least a barrel a day. The company had struck gas in the fourth sand in paying quantities in this same well, but decided to drill deeper. The bit was 10 feet in the sand when oil was struck. They will drill deeper in the hope of increasing the flow.

ENTERS GUILT PLEA TO MANSLAUGHTER

William Tobin, of Donora, charged with the killing of Alex Moki, at Donora, on the night of June 27th last, on Tuesday entered a plea of guilty of involuntary manslaughter. He had been indicted for voluntary manslaughter. The defense was willing to enter the plea of the lesser degree of crime and the commonwealth, after a conference on the matter, decided to accept that plea. Sentence was suspended until next Monday.

The shooting of Moki was a little out of the ordinary. Mrs. Tobin arose during the night to close a window. She noticed that the chicken house door was open. She knew it had been shut earlier in the evening. She called her husband's attention to the fact but he did not respond. She started out to shut the door when she saw a man near the chicken house. She called her husband, who seized a gun and going out, fired. The man was afterward identified as Alex Moki.

AUTO WRECKED WHEN CAUGHT BETWEEN TWO STREET CARS

Machine Badly Damaged, but Occupants Escape Without Injury

ATTEMPTING TO PASS BIG CAR

Caught between two street cars at Black Diamond junction of the Pittsburg Railway company lines, Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock, a Chevrelet touring car, driven by W. Bronce, of Fox stop, Maple creek, was badly wrecked, while the occupants narrowly escaped fatal injuries. In the car at the time with Mr. Bronce were two women members of his family but beyond a bad scare they escaped without a scratch.

One of the large cars, bound from Pittsburg to Charleroi had stopped for a short time at the Diamond on account of minor motor troubles. While the car was making repairs a small car approached from Charleroi. In the meantime Mr. Bronce driving a new Cheverlet was approaching from the direction of Monongahela, and on the way to Donora

Seeing that the big car had stopped longer than usual he kept on the way and endeavored to pass the car to the left. As he did so he failed to notice the approach of the smaller car, and his auto was caught between the two street cars and practically wrecked. The body of the car, the rear fenders and other parts appeared to be greatly damaged, and the large car had to back away in order to release the auto from its position. The occupants of the car, although badly frightened by the accident, were not injured in any way, because of the promptness with which the motormen brought their cars to stop when they realized that the auto was being crushed. After the accident the auto was pulled from under the side of the big car and placed alongside the street at that point.

The accident caused considerable excitement among the passengers on the two cars, who feared for the safety of the occupants of the auto.

WELL KNOWN LUMBER MAN DIED ON FRIDAY

James L. Yohe, of Monongahela, of the well known lumber and contracting firm of Yohe Brothers, died at his home in that city last Friday night in the 71st year of his age. Funeral services were held this afternoon, with interment in Monongahela cemetery. Mr. Yohe had been connected with the lumber and contracting business all his life. He was one of eight brothers, and his was the first death among them.

STEEL BARGES TO REPLACE WOODEN ONES

The Pittsburg Coal company has awarded a contract to the McClintic-Marshall Construction company, of Rankin, a contract for the construction of ten steel barges, to replace the present timber barges with a modern steel fleet. It was said along the Pittsburg wharf that the barges would likely be constructed at the Riter-Conley plant at Leetsdale, on the Ohio river. The barges will be 27 feet wide and 175 feet long. This size has been found by the Carnegie Steel company as being about the best adapted for the coal trade on the Monongahela river.

The decision of the Pittsburg Coal company to build steel barges is also an indication that it proposes to modernize its fleet, with a view of making their water transportation department more effective than ever. The Pittsburg Coal is the successor of all the former independent operators on the river, who more than twenty years ago disposed of their holdings to the River Coal, which in turn was absorbed by the Pittsburg Coal. Since that time however, a large number of independent coal companies have come into existence, whose total tonnage on the river is far in excess of the Pittsburg Coal

The Cox-Roosevelt idea of a clean campaign is set forth by the Republican Publicity Association through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., as follows:

"On election eve F. D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for vice-president, laid the flattering unction unto his party's soul that it had conducted a clean campaign. Ordinarily it is not important that the victor should notice the pre-election statements of the vanquished, but young Mr. Roosevelt's statement is one which demands refutation.

"It is doubtful if a dirtier, yellow campaign was ever conducted in the history of American politics than that which was sponsored in one way or another by the Democratic party from the day of Mr. Cox's acceptance speech up to the utter rout of hypocrisy on Novemer 2nd.

"There seemed to be no limit in lexicon or legerdemain which was not sought by the champions of Messers. Cox and F. D. Roosevelt in the campaign recently closed. Slander and villification were exploited to their uttermost depths by these men. They called Warren Harding a brewer a creature of the rapacious profiteers, a weakling and a snob. They repeatedly impugned his honesty. They at length descended to the lowest level of personal abuse by circulating lying leaflets concerning his blood and his parentage. They called the Senate leader of the Republicans a base conspirator and the most despised man in America. They accused the Republican party with attempting to purchase the election, an insult alike to the Republicans and the voters. They charged that party with conniving with Kaiser Wilhelm to keep the United States out of the league of nations, with a plot to debauch the U. S. Supreme Court in that Harding if elected, would appoint judges to that august body whose decisions would be hawked in the market place; with appealing to the hyphenated vote and ignoring the American vote; with planning the rule of the bayonet and the reign of the mailed fist. In their desperation the Democrats dragged the vestments of religion from their chanels and waved them in the faces of the people; they invaded the churches with their un-American crusade and they capitalized the illness of their leader in an appeal to the sob vote; and they dragooned the State Department to their purposes. In the choice language of F. D. Roosevelt opponents of the Versailles Treaty were "league liars,' as they were 'contemptible quitters' in the intemperate language of Mr. Wilson, whose uncontrollable fits of rage worked his destruction. If this was F. D. Roosevelt's idea of a 'clean campaign,' what horrible metamorphosis had party association worked in him? What filth could his party have possibly handled to earn his disapproval?

"And the aftermath blasts from the Democratic party are quite as fetid. The editorial appearing in the New York World on the morning following the election displayed the spirit of Lucifer cast out of Heaven. The truest sport in the Democratic ranks, if we are to judge from after-election language, was James W. Gerard of the Democratic National Committee, whose tribute to Harding was like a flower blooming in a fen.

"The campaign waged by the Democratic party was a disgrace to American politics. It showed, as nothing else could the composite mentality of the propónents of internationalism, parlor-bolshevism and that sickening sycopancy which grows out of worship of a king. Its sharpest condemnation was to be found in the poise and diginity maintained by Harding and Coolidge a condemnation which the people overwhelmingly indorsed. Never has hypocrisy received such a rebuke. The Democratic party has four years in which to urge itself and it is to be hoped its putrescence has not reached the tertiary stage. Meanwhile it is in order to swap the Democratic donkey for a pole-cat."

With a story, star and production that bid fair to set the pace for screen attractions for months to come "Passions Playground," adapted from the famous story of Monte Carlo, "The Guests of Hercules," by C. N. and A. M. Williamson, will be shown at the Majestic Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

The infinite opportunities for picturization of the famous gambling story induced Katherine MacDonald "the American beauty," to select it as the starring vehicle for her latest release under her contract with First National Exhibitors' Circuit. Despite her remarkable past successes, Miss MacDonald has never been seen in a picture that equals "Passions Playground," for dramatic moments.

ALLEGED FIRE BUG IS FREED BY JURY

Frank Karm, aged 32 years, a Russian, of Webster, arrested as being a suspect for the cause of several fires in Donora and Webster on the night of September 27, was placed on trial in the Westmoreland county courts at Greensburg a few days ago and was freed by the jury. The testimony showed that Karma had been followed to his home by the police, after an attempt had been made to fire the Webster garage and that his clothes were soaked with oil and gas and that a quantity of matches were found on him. Karma, when locked up, claimed to be "sick in the head."

The promised campaign against illiteracy might appropriately begin in our greatest city, for the census shows that in New York there are 382,039 persons between the ages of 21 and 50 who are either utterly illiterate or can not speak a word of English.
